

Inna Shevchenko, Piano

The honored artist of Russia, Inna Shevchenko received her special music education in the city of Omsk at the V. Shebalin Music College where she studied under L. Vinkler. She also studied under professor K. Adzemova at the Gnesin National Academy of Music in Moscow. This wonderful pianist connects with her audience through her amazing virtuoso technique and high level of accompaniment skills. During the last 35 years, Inna Shevchenko has been a partner and wife to the domra virtuoso Alexander Tsygankov, who holds the title of the National artist of Russia. There is no city in Russia where this amazing duo has not performed. Listeners from the USA, France, Germany, Sweden, Japan, and many other countries applaud this great duo. Half of their success is due to the amazing talent of Inna Shevchenko. She has also used her skills to help many young musicians by accompanying them during competitions. In competitions in many Russian cities, she has received awards for best accompanist. In October 2001 by special order of the President of Russia, she was honored with the high title of "Honored Artist of Russia".
